Fall Trash Bash & Longview Recycles Day: November 9, 2013
Formerly known as the Citywide Cleanup.

Kickoff: 9:00 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. at Longview Public Library, 222 W. Cotton St. Volunteers may register, and receive litter supplies.

Main Event: 9:00 a.m. - Noon. Volunteers will beautify the community by reducing litter on streets, neighborhoods, and parks throughout Longview. Volunteers can work on the project or location of their choice. Areas needing attention may be assigned to participating groups.

Report Back: 11:00 - 12:00 p.m. at the Library. Volunteers are invited to come back to the Library to retrain the supplies and report their results of the cleanup. It will be an opportunity to celebrate accomplishments with other volunteers.

Cost: Free. Litter supplies provided.

Contact: City of Longview Volunteer Center at 903-237-1390.

Tire Recycling and Electronics Recycling will also be available during the event. For more information about the recycling activities, contact 903-237-1250.
